

Record what happened

Write down the actual result, including the parts that did not work.

Case name / executor / start and finish

Approval reference / last freshness check

Steps actually run

Files, records or settings changed

Output locations, identifiers or hashes

Time, cost, retries and partial failures

Result claimed / what needs checking next

Check: A receipt describes what happened. It is not independent proof that the result is correct.